Table of contents

Preface to the handbook series v

Introducing the pragmatics of society
Karin Aijmer and Gisle Andersen 1

I. Social, regional and situational factors

1. Doing age and ageing: language, discourse and social interaction
Alexandra Georgakopoulou and Anna Charalambidou 31

2. Gender identities and discourse
Bróna Murphy 53

3. Regional pragmatic variation
María Elena Placencia 79

4. Pragmatics in multilingual language situations
Susanne Mühleisen 115

II. The language system and pragmalinguistic features

5. Speech and writing: linguistic styles enabled by the technology of literacy
Douglas Biber 137

6. Phonetics and the management of talk-in-interaction
Gareth Walker 153

7. Prosody and pragmatic effects
Anne Wichmann 181

III. Pragmatic markers and the notion of speaker attitude

8. Pragmatic markers in a sociopragmatic perspective
Ad Foolen 217

9. Interjections
Neal R. Norrick 243

10. Vagueness and hedging
Maryann Overstreet 293

IV. Different interpretational levels – speech acts, politeness and beyond

11. Requests and orders: a cross-linguistic study of their linguistic construction and interactional organization
Carmen Taleghani-Nikazm 321

12. Appreciatory sounds and expressions of embodied pleasure used as compliments
Andrea Golato 361

13. Politeness and impoliteness
Jonathan Culpeper 393

14. Honorifics and address terms
Sachiko Ide and Kishiko Ueno 439

V. Sequential patterns and activities

15. Social and pragmatic variation in the sequential organization of talk
Jan Svennevig and Ronny Johansen 473

16. Turn-taking in conversation
Jakob Steensig 501

17. Pauses and hesitations
Anna-Brita Stenström 537

VI. Pragmatics and the notion of culture

18. Cultural variation in language use
Anna Gladkova 571

19. Intercultural rhetoric and language of healthcare
Ulla Connor 593

VII. Pragmatics and the larger societal context

20. Global and intercultural communication
Juliane House 607

21. Critical discourse analysis: overview, challenges, and perspectives
Ruth Wodak 627

22. Pragmatics, linguistic anthropology and history
Leila Monaghan 651

About the authors 689
Author index 695
Subject index 701