

Terms and Conditions of Use for Online Access to Walter de Gruyter Journals (Single Site)

These Terms and Conditions govern the rights and limitations of online access to Walter de Gruyter electronic Journals for which the Licensee is purchasing access on an annual subscription basis for a single site.

Such site shall be a contiguous geographical location from which Authorised Users can access Walter de Gruyter Journals through a Secure Network.

1 Rights and Obligations of Licensee

1.1 Walter de Gruyter grants to the Licensee the non-exclusive, non-transferable and non-sub-licensable right to give Authorised Users access to the electronic versions of Walter de Gruyter journals (Licensed Material) and allow its use as set forth below. Access and use has to be via a stand-alone network or a virtual network on the internet which is accessible only to Authorised Users controlled and supervised by the Licensee (Secure Network).

1.2 Authorised Users are

- current members of the Licensee's faculty
- library staff and other staff of the Licensee
- individuals who are currently studying at the Licensee's institution
- members of the public visiting the library

1.3 Members of the public visiting the library are permitted to access the Licensed Material only from computer terminals within the Licensee's library premises as the relevant site. All other Authorised Users may access the Licensed Material from computer terminals within the Licensee's library premises and – if the Licensee provides this – by means of remote access through the Licensee's Secure Network.

1.4 Authorised Users may access, search, download and view the Licensed Material and make single printed or electronic copies of individual articles for private use or research.

1.5 The Licensee may not use or permit Authorised Users to use the Licensed Material for the purpose of monetary reward by means of sale, resale, loan, hire, lease or any other form of exploitation.

1.6 The Licensee may make temporary local electronic reproductions of the Licensed Material which are transient or incidental and form an integral and essential part of a technological process (caching) and whose sole purpose is to enable a lawful use of the Licensed Material by the Authorised Users and which have no independent economic significance.

1.7 Licensee and Authorised Users may use a reasonable portion of the Licensed Materials in the preparation of printed Course Packs for the use of Authorised Users at the Licensee's institution, but not for commercial use or re-sale.

1.8 Licensee is not allowed to engage in commercial document supply of Walter de Gruyter Journals, but may fulfil occasional requests from other institutions (Interlibrary Loan). Such requests must not be fulfilled with electronic copies but only printed copies of the Licensed Material.

1.9 Licensee or Authorised Users are not allowed to make available parts of the Licensed Material on any electronic network, including without limitation the Internet and the World Wide Web, other than the Secure Network.

1.10 Licensee or Authorised Users are not allowed to make print or electronic reproductions of multiple extracts of the Licensed Materials (systematic download) that do not merely constitute a small part of a Journal.

1.11 Licensee or Authorised Users may not remove or alter the authors' names or Walter de Gruyter's copyright notices or other means of identification or disclaimers as they appear in the Licensed Material.

1.12 Licensee shall use all reasonable endeavours to ensure

- that only Authorised Users are permitted access to the Licensed Materials;
- that Authorised Users are appropriately notified of the importance of respecting the intellectual property rights in the Licensed Materials;
- that the Authorised Users are made aware of and undertake to abide by these Terms and Conditions;
- compliance with these Terms and Conditions; upon becoming aware of any unauthorised use or other breach, the Licensee shall inform Walter de Gruyter and take all reasonable and appropriate steps, both to ensure that such activity ceases and to prevent any recurrence.

2 Obligations of Walter de Gruyter

2.1 Walter de Gruyter provides access to the Licensed Material via the Internet during the period for which the electronic subscription of the Licensed Material is purchased by the Licensee. Walter de Gruyter shall use reasonable endeavours to ensure that its server has adequate capacity and bandwidth to support the usage of the Licensee at a level commensurate with the standards of availability for information services of similar scope operating via the Internet.

2.2 On termination of the subscription Walter de Gruyter will allow continuing access for Authorised Users to PDF files of that part of the Licensed Material, which was published and paid for within the subscription period.

Walter de Gruyter may at its own discretion alternatively provide access to those PDF files by

- Allowing one systematic download of those PDF Files to an electronic archive of the Licensee;
- A third party (chosen by Walter de Gruyter) serving as a trusted repository;
- Providing a single copy of those PDF files on data carrier like CD-ROMs, DVD or others.

All rights and obligations of the Licensee apply accordingly to such materials.

2.3 Under present policy, Licensee is also given access to issues published prior to the subscription period. Such access is given on an ex gratia basis and no right is hereby created for the Licensee to use or access any material other than that for which an institutional subscription has been purchased. On termination of the subscription access to such material that was not paid for will terminate.

2.4 Walter de Gruyter reserves the right at any time to withdraw from the Licensed Material any item or part of an item for which it no longer retains the right to publish or make it available to third parties, or which it has reasonable grounds to believe infringes copyright or is defamatory, obscene, unlawful or otherwise objectionable.

3 Limitation of Warranties and of Liability

3.1 Walter de Gruyter makes no representations or warranties of any kind, express or implied, including, but not limited to, warranties of design, accuracy of the information contained in the Licensed Materials, merchantability or fitness of use for a particular purpose. The Licensed Materials are supplied 'as is' and "as available".

3.2 Walter de Gruyter shall not be liable for Licensee's damage caused by slight negligence. This limitation of liability shall apply to all claims of Licensee for damages irrespective of their legal grounds, unless stated otherwise in the following.

3.3 The limitation of liability under Clause 3.1 shall not apply with respect to the breach of significant contractual obligations caused by slight negligence of Walter de Gruyter, but in this case the damages shall be limited to the amount of foreseeable damages typical of such contracts. The same applies in cases of gross negligence on the part of simple vicarious agents of Walter de Gruyter.

3.4 The limitation of liability under Clauses 3.1 and 3.2 shall not apply to claims under the German Product Liability Act (ProdHG), damages resulting from the violation of life, body or health or in cases that are covered by any guarantees of Walter de Gruyter.

3.5 Where Walter de Gruyter's liability is excluded or limited, this shall also apply to Walter de Gruyter's employees, representatives and vicarious agents.

3.6 Neither party's delay or failure to perform any provision of this License, as a result of circumstances beyond its control (including, without limitation, war, strikes, floods, governmental restrictions, power, telecommunications or Internet failures, or damage to or destruction of any network facilities) shall be deemed to be, or to give rise to, a breach of this License.

4 Term and Termination

These Terms and Conditions may be terminated if either party materially breaches its obligations under this agreement and does not remedy such breach within 30 days after notification by the other party. In particular, Walter de Gruyter may terminate this agreement if Licensee makes the Licensed Material or any parts thereof available to anyone or in any way not expressly provided for in these Terms and Conditions.

5 General

Should any provisions of these Terms and Conditions be or become completely or partially invalid or should there prove to be an omission herein, this shall not affect the validity of the remaining provisions. In place of the invalid provision, that valid provision which comes closest to meeting the purpose of the invalid one shall be deemed agreed. In the event of an omission, that provision shall be deemed agreed which corresponds to what the Parties would have agreed, judging by the purpose of this Agreement, had they given the matter their attention at the outset.

Multisite Licenses

If the Licensee wishes the license to cover more than one Site (e.g. if the library premises extend to multiple sites), it must obtain a multi-site license. With questions about this license or multi-site licenses please contact Joachim.Engelland@degruyter.com.