

Illustrations and Tables

MAPS

1. Neighborhoods of central Los Angeles, early twentieth century	11
2. Central Los Angeles areas zoned for industry, 1915	55
3. Prostitution arrests: January 1 through March 5, 1919	129
4. Principal street-speaking districts in downtown Los Angeles, 1920s	153

FIGURES

1. The Church of All Nations, founded in 1918	63
2. G. Bromley Oxnam, founder of the Church of All Nations	65
3. Girls' class picture, Twentieth Street School, 1921	107
4. Roosevelt High School Spanish Club	110
5. Jordan High School Yearbook page, 1934	111
6. "Crib district" in Chinatown	126
7. Soapboxer addressing a crowd in the plaza	149
8. Communist demonstration on Main Street, 1930	184
9. Communist demonstration at the plaza, 1934	186

TABLES

1. Population of Los Angeles, 1850-1930	17
2. Nationality-race of residents of survey district south of Fifth Street, 1920 and 1939	26
3. Nationality-ethnic groups in eleven central city districts, 1917	32
4. Membership of selected All Nations children's clubs by ethnoracial background, early 1920s	86
5. Census of selected playgrounds in Los Angeles, by race or ethnicity, 1918	103
6. Population of selected Los Angeles primary schools, by race or ethnicity, 1924	108