
I then received a leave in fall 2020 to complete work on the book thanks to the very generous support of the John S. and James L. Knight Foundation and Craig Newmark Philanthropies. Additional support for research came from the University of California, Irvine, School of Law.

As always, I benefited greatly from the expertise and wisdom of symposium participants and of generous readers of both those original articles and this current draft. I thank the following people who provided very useful comments and suggestions: Floyd Abrams, Bob Bauer, Joe Birkenstock, Ted Boutrous, Bruce Cain, Anupam Chander, Guy Charles, Erwin Chemerinsky, Bobby Chesney, Danielle Citron, Julie Cohen, Ron Collins, Evelyn Douek, David Ettinger, Chad Flanders, Ned Foley, Howard Gillman, Rebecca Green, Sarah Haan, Daniel Hemel, Steve Kay, David Kaye, Justin Levitt, Michael Morley, Derek Muller, Brendan Nyhan, Norm Ornstein, Nate Persily, Rick Pildes, Ann Ravel, Charlotte Stanton, Brad Smith, Dan Tokaji, Eugene Volokh, and Sonja West. Thanks also to my University of California, Irvine, colleagues who participated in a faculty workshop, as well as colleagues at the Georgetown University Law Center who participated in a workshop when I was a Visitor. Thanks as well to the anonymous reader for Yale University Press. Although the book is much improved thanks to these comments, I take full responsibility for remaining errors.
A Cknowledgments

Thanks to Bill Frucht of Yale University Press, whose judgment and editing skills are second to none, to Karen Olson at the Press for help with all manner of logistical issues, to Margaret Otzel and Ann Twombly for excellent production assistance, and to my agent, Melissa Flashman, whose smarts and initiative helped bring this book to life.

University of California, Irvine, School of Law Dean Song Richardson ensured that I had all the resources I needed to complete this project, and she provided enthusiastic encouragement all along the way. Thanks as well to Mary Ann Soden and Dennis Slon, who assisted in obtaining the financial support for this work.

Hannah Bartlett, Kayley Berger, Julia Jones, and Anna Setyaeva provided excellent research assistance. Stacy Tran provided professional and terrific administrative assistance. Erin Hiebert assisted in the preparation of this book’s illustrations, and Ellen Augustiniak, Jeff Latta, Dianna Sahhar, and Christina Tsou provided first-rate library support.

Most of all, I thank my wife, Lori Klein, for her unwavering support, sage advice, love, and patience.

I gratefully acknowledge permission to reprint parts of these works:

x
Acknowledgments

Cheap Speech and What It Has Done (To American Democracy), 16 First Amendment Law Review 200 (2018)
Election Meltdown: Dirty Tricks, Distrust, and the Threat to American Democracy 75–80, 83–87 (Yale University Press 2020)

Thanks to Thomas Kennedy for permission to republish his tweet about mailboxes in Wisconsin and to Bruce Mittlesteadt for permission to republish his photograph of the mailboxes that appears in the tweet. And thanks to Matthew Mulligan for assisting in determining the origin of the photograph.

Rick Hasen
Studio City, California
June 2021
This page intentionally left blank
Cheap Speech
This page intentionally left blank