CATHARSIS

Penang Institute, one of Malaysia's major think tanks, is funded by the Penang State Government. Established in 1997 as SERI, it underwent a name change in 2011 as part of a rebranding exercise carried out to reflect heightened ambitions to secure Penang's reputation as an intellectual hub and as the culture capital of the country, and to enhance its understanding of ASEAN and beyond.

With the tagline 'Making Ideas Work', Penang Institute encourages bold and innovative thinking not only in academic disciplines, but also through supporting literature by way of events such as book launches and public literature seminars; participation in the annual George Town Literary Festival; and through its renowned magazine Penang Monthly. Its policy brief, ISSUES, was launched in June 2017, and its Penang Institute Podcasts series in August 2018.

The ISEAS – Yusof Ishak Institute (formerly Institute of Southeast Asian Studies) is an autonomous organization established in 1968. It is a regional centre dedicated to the study of socio-political, security, and economic trends and developments in Southeast Asia and its wider geostrategic and economic environment. The Institute's research programmes are grouped under Regional Economic Studies (RES), Regional Strategic and Political Studies (RSPS), and Regional Social and Cultural Studies (RSCS). The Institute is also home to the ASEAN Studies Centre (ASC), the Nalanda-Sriwijaya Centre (NSC), and the Singapore APEC Study Centre.

ISEAS Publishing, an established academic press, has issued more than 2,000 books and journals. It is the largest scholarly publisher of research about Southeast Asia from within the region. ISEAS Publishing works with many other academic and trade publishers and distributors to disseminate important research and analyses from and about Southeast Asia to the rest of the world.

The Strategic Information and Research Development Centre (SIRD) is an independent publishing house founded in January 2000 in Petaling Jaya, Malaysia. The SIRD list focuses on Malaysian and Southeast Asian studies, economics, gender studies, social sciences, politics and international relations. Our books address the scholarly community, students, the NGO and development communities, policymakers, activists and the wider public. SIRD also distributes titles (via its sister organisation, GB Gerakbudaya Enterprise Sdn Bhd) published by scholarly and institutional presses, NGOs and other independent publishers. We also organise seminars, forums and group discussions. All this, we believe, is conducive to the development and consolidation of the notions of civil liberty and democracy.
