Contents

ix  Preface
xv  Acknowledgments

3  Introduction: Unsettling Canadian Art History
ERIN MORTON

Part One
Unsettling Settler Methodologies, Re-centring Decolonial Knowledge

1  White Settler Tautologies and Pioneer Lies in Mi’kma’ki
TRAVIS WYSOTE AND ERIN MORTON

2  Notes to a Nation: Teachings on Land through the Art of Norval Morrisseau
CARMEN ROBERTSON

3  Embodying Decolonial Methodology: Building and Sustaining Critical Relationality in the Cultural Sector
LEAH DECTER AND CARLA TAUNTON

4  Silence as Resistance: When Silence Is the Only Weapon You Have Left
LINDSAY McINTYRE

Part Two
Excavating and Creating Decolonial Archives

5  Truth Is No Stranger to (Para)fiction: Settlers, Arrivants, and Place in Iris Häussler’s He Named Her Amber, Camille Turner’s BlackGrange, and Robert Houle’s Garrison Creek Project
MARK A. CHEETHAM