Contents

vii Acknowledgments

3 Chapter One
Introduction
Dominic Hardy

39 Chapter Two
Frankenstein’s Tory: Graphic Satire in 1840s Montreal, from Le Charivari canadien to Punch in Canada
Dominic Hardy

75 Chapter Three
Uncle Sam, a Not-So-Distant Cousin: Canadian Contributions to the Genesis of a US Allegorical Figure
Christian Vachon

98 Chapter Four
Reading Allegorical “Miss Canada” in Graphic Satire
Robyn Fowler

136 Chapter Five
Clubs, Axes, and Umbrellas: The Woman Suffrage Movement as Seen by Montreal Cartoonists (1910–1914)
Pierre Chemartin and Louis Pelletier

170 Chapter Six
Crossing the Line: Canadian Satire of the “Pretty Girl” North and South of the 49th Parallel
Jaleen Grove
206 Chapter Seven
Anti-Semitic Caricature in 1930s Montreal: Language and National Stereotypes in Adrien Arcand’s Le Goglu (1929–1933)
Josée Desforges

232 Chapter Eight
New Frontier (1936–1937) and the Antifascist Press in Canada
Lora Senechal Carney

257 Chapter Nine
Albéric Bourgeois … a.k.a. Baptiste Ladébauche
Laurier Lacroix

285 Chapter Ten
Epilogue: Humour, Wit, and Satire in Canada
Annie Gérin

297 Contributors

299 Index