Transliteration and Dating

Transliteration follows the modified version of the Library of Congress system. In the case of pre-1918 orthography, the spelling has not been modernized, except that the final hard sign ['] has been omitted. All dates are given according to the Julian calendar in use in Russia at the time. It ran twelve days behind the Gregorian calendar in the nineteenth century and thirteen days behind in the twentieth century.