Contents

Acknowledgments vii
Introduction 3
1 The Justice of Sentencing, or How (Not) to Speak 26
2 “A” Confession: How to Avoid Speaking the Name of the Father 62
3 Constituting Justice: Unionist-Republican and Confederate-Democratic Narratives 99
4 The Feminine, the Judaic, the Pauline, and the Political: Uncle Tom’s Cabin and the Ethical Critique of Justice 127
5 Exodus Politics and the Redemption of Difference 172
6 Rendering Justice in The Grandissimes: Advocacy and Others’ Voices 217

Conclusion: Confederate Democracy and the Non-In-Different Constitution 245

Notes 257
Works Cited 273
Index 289