A RICH BROTH
Memoirs of a Canadian Diplomat

DAVID CHALMER REECE
ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

To Nina, who lived and edited it with élan, and to our children for their cheerful survival of such mobility. They made it more fun than stress. Our thanks to Canadian, diplomatic and foreign colleagues who shared the life and work. We much regret that the diplomatic merry-go-round makes it so hard to sustain friendships.

We are grateful to the Director of Carleton University Press, Michael Gnarowski, and the staff who, under the editorship of Anne Winship, made many improvements in this text.

I remember with gratitude two excellent teachers at Ravenscourt school in Winnipeg, Percy Wykes and Ogden Turner. They taught history and literature with lasting benefit to their students.
