5 REPRESENTATIVE DISTINCTIONS: MEN AND WOMEN IN THE COLLECTIVE BIOGRAPHIES

“Differentiation” and “Fidelity”: A Cultural Analysis of Gender Representation 149

6 THE STRUCTURE OF FEELING IN THE EMERGING MIDDLE CLASS

Personality Characteristics of Biographical Subjects 173
The Emergence of a Mediating Class 179
The Professional Ideal and the Middle Class 184

CONCLUSION 197

APPENDIX A Note on Methodology 201

FIGURES

1.1 Selected Canadian Biographical Dictionaries, 1862-1903 22
3.1 Questionnaire for Morgan's The Parliamentary Companion 97
3.2 Questionnaire for Morgan's Canadian Men and Women of the Time, 2nd edition 98

TABLES

3.1 Occupational Categories in Group 1 Biographical Dictionaries 103
3.2 Occupational Categories in Group 2 Biographical Dictionaries 104
3.3 National Origin, Group 1 106
3.4 National Origin, Group 2 107
3.5 Residential Distribution by Province or Country, Group 2 108
3.6 Regional Distribution of Residence in Cochrane's Canadian Album 108
3.7 Age Distribution, All Samples, Group 2 109
3.8 Religion, Group 2 110
4.1 Generational Mobility, Group 2 Biographies 124
4.2 Generational Mobility, Group 2 Biographies, Combined Professional and Non-manual 124
4.3 Non-Career Specific Social Participation 145
5.1 Social Activity/Occupational Categories, Morgan’s Types of Canadian Women 152
5.2 Women’s Occupations, Morgan’s Canadian Men and Women of the Time 156