Contents

Acknowledgments xi

Introduction
Comparative Touchstones of Literature 1

1. Auerbach’s Scar
   I. Ancestral Antiphony: Autolycus/Abraham 19
   II. The Comparatist Mirror 31

2. The Siege of Baghdad: Rashiduddin Fazlullah, Orhan Pamuk, and the Commissions of History
   I. History’s Rhyme 41
   II. Narrative’s Edge 46
   III. Vanishing Point 51
   IV. Rhyming History: The Baghdadization of America 56
   V. Frank Perspective 60

3. Of Learned Ignorance: Nicholas of Cusa and Cardinal Spaces of Culture
   I. Space-Time-Culture 64
   II. Concentric Deviations, Elliptic Orthodoxies 70
   III. Ignorance by Degrees: Identity and Equivalence 74

4. Memories of the Future: Giordano Bruno Remembers Us
   I. Remembering Mnemosyne 84
   II. Culture and Memory 89
   III. Memory, Countermemory 100

5. A Carceral Archive and the Culture of Conspiracy:
   Fray José Servando Teresa de Mier Noriega y Guerra, Enlightenment’s Contestant
   I. Culture, Conspiracy, and the Value of X 108
   II. Divertimento: Since Time Immemorial 119
   III. Philology’s Hearth, Conspiracy’s Home 121
Contents

| IV. Truth Mission as Reinscription, Narrative Plot as Cultural Conspiracy | 125 |
| V. Compensatory Gestures: From Imperial Monarchy to Republican Anarchy | 127 |
| VI. Epistemania and the Cloak of Invisibility | 130 |

6. The Arts of Mitigation, the Garden in the Barbarian: Zbigniew Herbert
   - I. “Oracular Rockings” | 134 |
   - II. Unbridled Torrent | 141 |
   - III. The Poetics of Mitigation | 148 |
   - IV. The Delicate Art of Political Assuagement | 152 |
   - V. The Trials of Poetry | 154 |

7. The Labors of Cassandra: Arendt in Jerusalem
   - I. The Trials of Posterity | 158 |
   - II. Cassandra and the Poets: Goodness Beyond Virtue, Wickedness Beyond Vice | 172 |

8. The People’s Republic and the Republic of Letters:
   The Alarming Gao Xingjian
   - I. The State of the National Subject | 177 |
   - II. The Fugitive Pronoun: A Peripatetic Mirror | 184 |

9. Memo from the Next Millennium: A Coda for Calvino
   - I. On Perseus’s Shield | 194 |
   - II. Consistency | 197 |

Epilogue
The Inventions of Comparative Literature:
A Minute on Method
   - I. Defining Figures | 204 |
   - II. Trivium, Tradition, Translation: Survival | 209 |
   - III. Beyond Metanarrative: Conversation | 214 |
   - IV. Memorandum of Understanding | 217 |

Notes | 221 |
Bibliography | 249 |
Index | 263 |