From Jeff to grandson Kai Weston Larsen, in the hope and belief that his generation will continue to find ways to avoid the scenarios discussed in this book.

From Kerry to Britt Weiler Kartchner and Reece Hansen; Michelle, Trevor, Brayden, and Max; Brittany and Chelsea, for their love and support, and in the hope that history need not repeat itself where nuclear weapons are involved.

The editors express special thanks to the Air Force Institute for National Security Studies (INSS), the Air Force National Security Division (A5XP), and Science Applications International Corporation for their early sponsorship of the study series that led to this volume.
