Contents

List of Abbreviations ix
Preface xv
Acknowledgments xvii

Introduction 1

Part I: Futurity in the Constitution of Transcendental Subjectivity
1 Protention as More than Inverse Retention 13
2 Expecting the World 28
3 Experience and the Essential Possibility of Anticipation 41

Part II: Futurity and the 'Openness' of the Intentional Subject
4 Phenomenology, Openness, and Ethics as First Philosophy 57
5 From Eschatology to Awaiting: Futurity in Levinas 69
6 Levinas’s Unique Contribution to Futurity in Phenomenology 86
PART III: FUTURITY AND INTENTIONALITY—THE PROMISE OF RELATIONSHIP

7  Genesis, Beginnings, and Futurity  99
8  From Deferring to Waiting (for the Messiah): Derrida’s Account of Futurity  115
9  The Promise of the Future  129
   Conclusion: The Promissory Discipline  140

Notes  155
Bibliography  193
Index  207