Contents

Preface vii

1. The Hegelian System 1
   The Works of Hegel 7
   The Place of the Individual Philosopher 9

2. The Text of Hegel’s Introduction 15
   The Nature of Thought 16
   Philosophical Thinking 20
   Reason vs. Understanding 23
   Reason and Freedom 29
   The Life of Thought 31
   Idea and Reality 35
   Philosophical Involvement 43
   Thought as “Negation” 48
   Religion and Philosophy 51
   The Concrete Universal 54
   The Infinity of Spirit 56
   The Stages of Philosophy 61

3. G. W. F. Hegel, Introduction to the History of Philosophy 67
   A. Concept of the History of Philosophy 70
      i. Preliminary Notions 73
HEGEL'S IDEA OF PHILOSOPHY

II. Application of these Notions to the History of Philosophy 82
III. Consequences in Regard to Treating the History of Philosophy 92
B. Relation of the History of Philosophy to the Rest of Spirit's Manifestations 94
   1. The Historical Status of Philosophy 94
   11. More Precise Characterization of the Relationship between Philosophy and the Other Manifestations of Spirit 99
C. General Division of the History of Philosophy 124
   1. The Beginning of the History of Philosophy 124
   11. Progress in the History of Philosophy 128
D. Sources and Literature for the History of Philosophy 136

Appendix 143
G. W. F. Hegel, Authority and Freedom 148