ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

The authors are deeply indebted to the Japanese language faculty and administrative staff members of the University of Maryland's Asian Division and of Seton Hall University who assisted in the preparation of this book. We would like especially to express our sincere gratitude to Dr. T. Benjamin Massey, chancellor of the University of Maryland University College, for his resolute decision to push this revision project through and to thank Dr. Ray Ehrensberger and Dr. Stanley J. Drazek, two distinguished chancellors emeritus of the University of Maryland, for their more than two decades of friendship.

We would like also to mention the following people whose assistance was most valuable: M. Yoshiko Andō, who assisted us in preparing the text and enriched it with her practical and valuable suggestions. Mr. Keiichirō Okutsu, who reviewed our notes, gave us his valuable suggestions, and gave us permission to use freely and adapt the content of Learn Japanese—Pattern Approach.

Urayama no
Yuuki ni utsuru
Tsurara kana
—Seien—

Back mountain icicles
Transcendent in the setting sun;
Splendid—ephemeral.