These Exercise Sheets are a study aid designed to help you reinforce what you learned in each lesson with more exercises and reviews. The teacher may assign certain exercises for classwork, or you may check your learning by doing the exercises yourself. There are three to five exercises for each lesson with directions given in Japanese or English. Read them carefully before you begin your work.