CONTENTS

List of Figures and Tables viii
List of Abbreviations xi
List of Swedish Terms xii
Acknowledgements xiv

Introduction  Funding Women’s Political Struggle –  a Matter of Gender and Class?  1
  Collective Action and Resources – Earlier Research  2
  Women’s Mobilizing, Class, Resources and Political Opportunities –  our Theoretical Point of Departure  4
  Comparing the Swedish Case  10
  Economic and Political Citizenship in Sweden  14
  Sources  16
  Disposition  19

1 The Fredrika Bremer Association 1884–1925  27
  The Start-up  28
  Ideas and Agendas  30
  New Leadership and New Directions  31
  Summary  32

2 A ‘Bourgeois’ Pioneer’s Purse  37
  Income  39
  Membership Fees  39
  Bequests and Donations  41
  Fundraising Sales  43
  Lotteries  45
  State Subsidies and Supporting Organizations  46
  Outlays  49
  Premises  50
  Meetings  52
Contents

Administration, Political Work and Enlightenment 54
The Voice of the Organization 56
A Periodical as a Philanthropic Project 61
Manifestations 62
Assets and Liabilities 63
Loan Funds 64
Bonds, Real Estate and Shares 67
Summarizing Conclusion 68

3 Human Resources in the Fredrika Bremer Association 83
Mobilizing – the Value of Members 83
Giving their Time, Commitment and Skills 86
Useful Contacts in Parliament and Government 89
Publicity 91
Feminist and Philanthropic Networks within Sweden 93
Feminist Networks outside Sweden 95
Summarizing Conclusions 98

4 Social Democratic Women 108
The Road to Integrated Separatism – Women in the Swedish Social Democratic Labour Party 110
Earlier Research 112
Forms and Phases of the Swedish Social Democratic Movement 114
1880–1906: The Paradox of Gender Unity and the Mobilization of Consensus 116
1906–1930: Organizing Separately 118
Breakthrough from 1933 122
Agendas and Strategies 124
Summary 126

5 The Price of Turning Women into Socialists 132
Sources of Income 134
Contributions from the Labour Movement 135
Membership Fees 139
Extra Income 142
Spending 145
Mobilizing Members and Voters 146
Investments in Education 152
Morgonbris – the Voice of Social Democratic Women in Sweden – Nearly an Affiliated Company 154
Administration 158
Getting Together – Meetings 161
First of May, Birthdays and Funerals – Times for Manifestations 163