Contents

Acknowledgments ix

Introduction
Reconsidering Rosenzweig and Modern Conceptions of Idolatry 3

PART I: ETHICS AND MONOTHEISM 15

One
The Eradication of Alien Worship: Rosenzweig as Ethical Monotheist 17

Two
Miracles and Martyrs, Ethics and Hermeneutics: Idolatry from Mendelssohn to Rosenzweig 32

Three
The Philosophical Import of Carnal Israel: Hermeneutics and the Structure of Rosenzweig’s The Star of Redemption 62

PART II: ART AND LANGUAGE 81

Four
Risky Images: Rosenzweig’s Aesthetic Theory and Jewish Uncanniness 83

Five
The Problem of Translation: Risking the Present for the Sake of the Past 105

PART III: RELIGION AND POLITICS 143

Six
Risking Religion: Christian Idolatry 145

Seven
Risking Politics: Jewish Idolatry 169

Eight
After Israel: Rosenzweig’s Philosophy of Risk Reconsidered 188
CONTENTS

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Conclusion</th>
<th>The Future of Monotheism</th>
<th>207</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>

| Notes      | 227                      |
| Index      | 273                      |