Illustrations

MAPS

MAP 1. Korean latitudes 13
MAP 2. Limit of Japanese expansion 16
MAP 3. Military situation in Korea, June 25 to September 14, 1950 63
MAP 4. UN offensive, fall 1950 90
MAP 5. The Chinese advance, 1950–51 120
MAP 6. Stalemate on the battlefield 144
MAP 7. The new conference area and neutral zone, October 25, 1951 155

PHOTOGRAPHS

FIG. 1. Welcome to American troops at Inchon, September 1945. 28
FIG. 2. Lowering the Japanese flag in Seoul, September 1945. 28
List of Illustrations

FIG. 3. The primary negotiators of the agreement on Korea in Moscow, December 1945. 29
FIG. 4. Opening session of meetings between the Soviet and American occupation commands in Korea at Seoul in January 1946. 29
FIG. 5. A banner at Seoul’s South Gate welcomes members of the UN Temporary Commission on Korea in early 1948. 43
FIG. 6. South Koreans wait in line to cast ballots in UN supervised election of May 10, 1948. 43
FIG. 7. South Koreans celebrate independence and the inauguration of the government of the Republic of Korea, Seoul, August 15, 1948. 44
FIG. 8. The first U.S. ambassador to the Republic of Korea, John J. Muccio, signs over the government in South Korea to the ROK on September 12, 1948. 44
FIG. 9. The United Nations Security Council discusses the Korean issue on June 30, 1950, as U.S. troops were being rushed from Japan to Korea. Courtesy of Getty Images 64
FIG. 10. Ceremony of September 29, 1950, restoring the ROK government in Seoul. 91
FIG. 11. UN forces found the capital building heavily camouflaged when they captured Pyongyang, the North Korean capital, during the third week of October 1950. 91
FIG. 12. Chinese troops captured by the First U.S. Marine Division in North Korea on December 9, 1950. 121
FIG. 13. A Turkish unit rests on a mountain road in western Korea. 121
FIG. 14. General Matthew B. Ridgway, commander of the Eighth Army in Korea, honors a French unit for its heroic stand against the Chinese at Chipyong-ni in February 1950. 122
FIG. 15. UN motorcade halted at Kaesong checkpoint, July 1951. 148
FIG. 16. UN delegates to the Armistice Conference at the main entrance of the conference house, July 16, 1951. 148
FIG. 17. Tents and huts at the second conference site, Panmunjom, March 1952. 156
List of Illustrations xi

FIG. 18. North Korean general Nam Il, the head of the Communist delegation at Panmunjom, walks from a meeting of the reconvened talks, May 8, 1953. 175

FIG. 19. U.S. and ROK officials meet at President Syngman Rhee's Seoul residence on June 13, 1953, only days before Rhee's release of Communist prisoners threatened an early armistice. 177

FIG. 20. Refugees move southward in the face of the Chinese offensive of January 1951. 207

FIG. 21. An orphanage on Koje-do, an island off the south coast, served as a major location for POW camps. 207

FIG. 22. Robert E. Neal of the U.S. Air Force holds the hand of "Charlie," his "adopted" son. 208

FIG. 23. Members of the Third U.S. Infantry Division assisted in the building of a new primary school for the children of the Pochan Orphanage. 209

FIG. 24. A U.S. airman shows orphans in the Columbia Children's Home some items donated to them by the residents of Ft. Worth, Texas. 210

FIG. 25. A mobilization poster of October 1950. 221

Unless otherwise stated, all photographs are courtesy of the National Archives II, College Park, Maryland.