CONTENTS

Acknowledgments ix
Introduction 1

Part I. In Defense of Civilization 19
1. The Disciplines of Reason and Lyric Poetry 21

2. Creative Dialogues with Textual Partners, Past and Present 79

Part II. Preservation of Self 119
3. Memory and Self-Justification: Images of Grace and Disgrace Abounding 121
   John Bunyan, Grace Abounding to the Chief of Sinners (1666): Writing the Eternally Present Self 124
   Oscar Wilde, De Profundis (1897): A Pastoral Letter of Disgrace Abounding 142

4. Memorial Narratives as Salvation for the Feminine Self 166
   Anne Frank, The Diary and Tales from the Secret Annexe (1942–44): Life Writing 191
CONTENTS

5. The Consolations of Imagination and Lyric Poetry 213
   Jean Cassou, Trente-trois sonnets composés au secret / 33 Sonnets of the Resistance (1943): Preserving the Liberty of a Poet 214

Part III. Testimony for Mankind 265

6. With Hindsight and Beyond Resistance 267
   Primo Levi, If This Is a Man (1947) and Ad ora incerta (1947–86): Resisting the Demolition of a Man 267

Conclusion: Beyond Testimony 302

Select Bibliography 311

Index 319