Aspects of the Analysis of Family Structure
To the memory of

F. F. GREENMAN

to Whom Many

an Education is Owed
"... when Bill Guthrie, umpiring in the American League, called a third strike on Wes Ferrell, a good pitcher and dangerous hitter with the Cleveland Indians, Ferrell heaved his stick into the air.

"'If dat bat comes down,' said Mr. Guthrie, not wishing to be hasty about it, 'you're outta d' ball game.'"
