CONTENTS

List of Tables vii
List of Figures viii
Acknowledgements x

1 Introduction: Women and Politics in Muslim Countries 1
2 Opportunity Structures: Strategising for Women’s Political Representation in Turkey and Iran 43

TURKEY
3 Turkish Women as Political Agents: Between Secularism and Islamic Revivalism 71
4 Strategic Interactions: Multi-party Politics and the Lobby for Female Representation 105
5 Framing for Political Inclusion: The Demand for Headscarved Women’s Candidacy 141

IRAN
6 Women and Politics in Iran: From Revolutionary to Reformist 169
7 Organising Against All Odds: Iranian Factionalism and Women’s Political Representation 206
8 Piety and Agency: Framing Women’s Political Rights in a Theocratic State 238
9 Conclusion: Demanding a Seat at the Table 272
Appendix 289
References 292
Index 326