

Passages & Afterworlds

RELIGIOUS CULTURES OF AFRICAN
AND AFRICAN DIASPORA PEOPLE

Series editors:

Jacob K. Olupona, Harvard University

Dianne M. Stewart, Emory University

and Terrence L. Johnson, Georgetown University

The book series examines the religious, cultural, and political expressions of African, African American, and African Caribbean traditions. Through transnational, cross-cultural, and multidisciplinary approaches to the study of religion, the series investigates the epistemic boundaries of continental and diasporic religious practices and thought and explores the diverse and distinct ways African-derived religions inform culture and politics. The series aims to establish a forum for imagining the centrality of Black religions in the formation of the “New World.”
