List of Tables

Table 2.1    Higher education (language) policy documents in Finland, Estonia, Latvia, and the EU —— 28
Table 2.2    Overview of comparisons of Finland, Estonia, Latvia, and the EU —— 37
Table 2.3    Composition of the population in the Baltic states according to ethnic affiliation (%) —— 43
Table 2.4    Mono-, bi-, and multilingual signs at the University of Tartu (N=869) —— 47
Table 2.5    Mono-, bi-, and multilingual signs at the University of Latvia (N=609) —— 47
Table 2.6    Mono-, bi-, and multilingual signs at Vilnius University (N=762) —— 47
Table 2.7    Languages and items available per language on the UT, UL, and VU websites —— 53
Table 3.1    Number of instances of each theme in the analyzed documents —— 65
Table 3.2    Overview of comments submitted by UT members in preparation for A2020 —— 69
Table 4.1    Features of the transnational scholars interviewed at UT —— 87
Table 4.2    Features of the transnational scholars interviewed at UT (focus-group discussion) —— 88
Table 4.3    Features of the local scholars interviewed at UT —— 100
Table 5.1    Historical chronology of the University of Tartu —— 116
Table 5.2    Students’ attitudes towards EMI courses and English as an academic language —— 140
Table 5.3    Students’ perceptions of the degree of difficulty/easiness in studying their subjects in English as compared to their L1 —— 141 https://doi.org/10.1515/9781501505898-204