Contents

Foreword — V

List of abbreviations — IX

Notes on contributors — XI

Akinmade T. Akande
Introduction — 1

Nicholas Faraclas
Chapter 1
Naija: A language of the future — 9

Christian Mair
Chapter 2
Nigerian Pidgin: Changes in prestige and function in non-Anglophone diasporic contexts — 39

Francis O. Egbokhare
Chapter 3
The accidental lingua franca: The paradox of the ascendancy of Nigerian
Pidgin in Nigeria — 67

Idom Inyabri and Eyo Mensah
Chapter 4
Nigerian Pidgin, identity and national re-invention in Naija stand-up comedy — 115

Mirka Honkanen
Chapter 5
Nigerian Pidgin in authenticating immigrant identities — 147

Eyo Mensah, Eunice Ukaegbu and Benjamin Nyong
Chapter 6
Towards a working orthography of Nigerian Pidgin — 177
Chapter 7
Morpho-syntactic features of Nigerian Pidgin on Radio programmes rendered in Naija — 201

Macaulay Mowarin
Chapter 8
Emphasis, focalization and topicalization in Nigerian Pidgin — 221

Adesoji Babalola
Chapter 9
Metalanguage of football commentary in Nigerian Pidgin — 249

Oluwabunmi O. Oyebode
Chapter 10
A social semiotic investigation of Nigerian Pidgin in select Nigerian church posters — 275

Joseph Babasola Osoba
Chapter 11
Nigerian Pidgin as national language: Prospects and challenges — 299

Oladipo Salami and Akinmade T. Akande
Chapter 12
Non-state actors, language practices, language policy and Nigerian Pidgin promotion — 321

Index — 341