

Contents

Anastasija Ropa

Introduction — 1

Part I: Working Horses and Their Equipment

Fabienne Meiers

1 Equestrian Cities: The Use of Riding Horses and Characteristics of Horse Husbandry in Late Medieval Urban Agglomerations — 13

Floriana Bardoneschi

2 Working Horses in the Northern European Countryside between the Thirteenth and Sixteenth Centuries: What Advantage for a Farm? — 27

Timothy Dawson

3 Baggage Animals – The Neglected Equines. An Introductory Survey of Their Varieties, Uses, and Equipping — 45

Gail Brownrigg

4 Medieval Horse Harness – The Evidence of the Images — 55

Part II: Warhorses

Jürg Gassmann

5 Mounted Combat in Transition: The Transformation of the Eleventh Century — 71

Jack Gassmann

6 The Use of the Crossbow in Medieval Cavalry — 87

Part III: Performing Horses

Karen Campbell

7 Reading Horses and Writing Chivalry — 107

Jennifer Jobst

8 How to Ride before a Prince: The Rise of Riding as a Performance Art — 123

Part IV: Caring for Horses

Elina H. Cotterill

- 9 How to Make a White Mark on a Black Horse: Middle English Hippiatric Medicine, Common Diseases, and Their Remedies — 147

Katrin Boniface

- 10 Bread for My Horses — 161

Part V: Material Cultures of Riding

John Clark

- 11 Curbing Horsepower: The Archaeology of Curb Bits in Medieval England – and Elsewhere — 177

Marina Viallon

- 12 An Autopsy of Renaissance Equestrianism: The Materials, Making, and Use of a ca. 1535 War Saddle from the Musée des Beaux-Arts of Rennes — 193

Part VI: The Represented Horse: Law, Administration, and Literature

Edgars Rops

- 13 The Horse in Welsh and Anglo-Saxon Law — 205

Anastasija Ropa

- 14 The Price and Value of the Warhorse in Late Medieval England — 219

Miriam Bibby

- 15 The (Galloway) Horse and His Boy: Le Roman Des Aventures De Fregus and “The Best Breed in the North”? — 235

Index of Personal Name — 253

Index of Place — 255

General Index — 257