Introduction: The Country Lawyer 1

1. “There Is No Law of This State Which Recognizes Slavery”: Governor of New York 7

2. “Harboring and Concealing a Weary and Fainting Slave”: Antislavery Litigator 28

3. “There Is a Higher Law Than the Constitution”: Conscience Whig Senator 57

4. “An Irrepressible Conflict between Opposing and Enduring Forces”: Republican Party Campaigner 77

5. “I Am to Engage in Conducting a War against a Portion of the American People”: Secretary of State 93

6. “To the Arbitrament of Courts of Law and to the Councils of Legislation”: Hesitant Emancipator 123

7. “The Union Has Been Rescued from All Its Perils”: Elder Statesman 141

Conclusion: Seward’s Law 151

Acknowledgments 161

Notes 163

Index 195
Seward's legal world, ca 1855. Map by Bill Nelson.
SEWARD’S LAW