Contents

List of Tables vii

Preface ix

1 Issues of World Food and Trade: Perspectives and Projections William P. Browne 1

Part 1 U.S. Agriculture in a Global Food System

2 Farm Exports and the Farm Economy: Economic and Political Interdependence Leo V. Mayer 17

3 Maximizing U.S. Benefits from Agricultural Interdependence G. Edward Schuh 29

Part 2 Public Policies in Developed Agricultural Nations

4 The Common Agricultural Policy and World Food Trade Nicholas Butler 45

CAP Update Fred H. Sanderson 58

5 Australia and New Zealand: The Role of Agriculture in a Closer Economic Relationship Hyam Gold and Ramesh Thakur 63

6 Soviet Agricultural Policy in the 1980s Anton F. Malish 77

7 Self-Sufficiency in Japanese Agriculture: Telescoping and Reconciling the Food Security–Efficiency Dilemma David N. Balaam 91

Part 3 Public Policies in Developing Agricultural Nations

8 Food Security and Agricultural Development Policies in the Middle East Marvin G. Weinbaum 109
9  Self-Sufficiency, Delinkage, and Food Production: Limits on Agricultural Development in Africa
   Louis A. Picard
   121

10  The Policy Consequences of the Green Revolution: The Latin American Case
    Michael K. Roberts, C. Micheal Schwartz, Michael S. Stohl, and Harry R. Targ
    137

11  U.S.-Mexican Agricultural Relations: The Upper Limits of Linkage Formation
    Gustavo del Castillo and Rosario Barajas de Vega
    153

Part 4  Dependence, Development, and Interdependence

12  The Role of World Food Organizations
    Ross B. Talbot
    171

13  The Social, Developmental, and Political Impacts of Food Aid
    James N. Schubert
    185

14  Public Policy and Interdependence
    Don F. Hadwiger
    203

Contributors
    211

Index
    215