Acknowledgements

In writing this book, I was very fortunate to be supported financially through several sources. I am grateful to the Arts and Humanities Research Council and the University of Bristol Alumni Foundation for generously funding the earliest stages of this research. This book has been greatly improved by the inclusion of a number of images, and I extend my gratitude to the Vinaver Trust for providing financial support to ensure this could happen.

This book could not have been written without the tireless support, unending patience when deadlines were stretched, and minute advice on early drafts from Caroline Palmer, Ad Putter, and Robert Gossedge.

Others have given their time, expertise, and attention to my work, helping me to bring this book into being. I must therefore extend my thanks to Helen Cooper, Leah Tether, Sebastiaan Verweij, Benjamin Pohl, Adrian Ailes, and George Ferzoco for offering valuable feedback on my work. Thanks are also due to Erik Kooper, James Carley, Richard Utz, Trevor Russell Smith, Claire Macht, Sarah Peverley, and Lily Hawker-Yates for kindly sharing their expertise and feedback.

Finally, I must thank those who have given generous moral, practical, and emotional support. First and foremost, this includes my husband Maxwell, who provided not only loving support and patient proof reading, but also assisted with the unenviable task of indexing this book. I am also grateful to my family, especially Helen Smith, Patrick Bateman, and Rosie Cox, for their support and patience.