This volume is the second publication that has resulted from a series of conferences organized by the School of Law, Edinburgh University, and the Max Planck Institute for Social Anthropology in Halle/Saale, Germany, on the development of the anthropology of law. The first volume, Mobile People, Mobile Law: Expanding Legal Relations in a Contracting World, appeared in 2005 with Ashgate. We thank the Max Planck Institute, the Economic and Social Research Council (U.K.), the British Academy (U.K.) and the Wenner-Gren Foundation for Anthropological Research (U.S.) for their financial support. We are deeply indebted to Astrid Finke and Jacqueline Cottrell, who worked on the manuscripts written by non-native speakers, to Margaret Beechey and Myra Reid for their work in organizing the conference, and to Gesine Koch, Sung-Joon Park, Cornelia Richter, Philipp Humpert and Titus Rebhann for preparing the manuscript.
