Plates

Plate 1. Marikawa leads his grandson into the centre of the village. 18
Plate 2. The village centre at twilight. 18
Plate 3. Nitpicking hair in the afternoon. 20
Plate 4. Eating smoked fish and manioc wafer (uwitsakywu). 20
Plate 5. Men’s wrestling. 20
Plate 6. The path from the back of a house, through an akäi grove towards the river. 24
Plate 7. Takulalu produces epitsiri dye from epitsiri pods. 34
Plate 8. Young women dressed according to the women’s ideal of beauty, with epitsiri band across the brow. 34
Plate 9. Fish designs for body paintings. 37
Plate 10. The apapanye Yewekwyuma. 45
Plate 11. The apapanye Ateshua. 45
Plate 12. The apapanye Arakuni. 45
Plate 13. The music and dancing of the apapanye. 100
Plate 14. The apapanye receive their food. 100
Plate 15. Distribution of food to the community. 101
Plate 16. The shaman (yatama) Monaím. 155
Plate 17. Women and men dance opposite each other in the uwéshë dance. 164
Plate 18. Sharing food between houses. 170
Plate 19. Path from the houses to the river through an akäi orchard. 182
Plate 20. Across the floodplain. 183
Plate 21. Into the forest by the river. 183
Plate 22. Diving in. 190
Plate 23. The River. 190