LIST OF ILLUSTRATIONS

MAPS
Adams’ Voyage to Japan, 1598-1600 viii
Outline Map of Japan – Key places viii
Kyushu Region in the 1600s xii
Japanese Trading with Asia in the 16th and 17th Centuries xxi

FRONTISPIECE ii
Derivative drawing of William Adams as a woodblock print

PLATE SECTION
1. Luis Teixeira map of Japan of 1595
2. The raid on Annobon, Gulf of Guinea, west Africa, in December 1598
3. Carving of Erasmus originally fixed to the stern of De Liefde
4. Anglo-Dutch sea battle of 20 April 1605
5. Segment of another illustration showing the five ships of the Dutch trading fleet including De Liefde
6. Portrait of Tokugawa Ieyasu
7. The Tokugawa family crest
8. Dutch East India Company factory at Hirado
9. ‘Arita’ porcelain plate of the Dutch East India Company (VOC)
10. Portrait of Matsura Shigenobu
11. Model of the San Buena Ventura built by Adams
12. Seventeenth-century painting showing Adams building his first ship at Izu
13. Public notice in Hirado, adjacent to the tombstone (pl.14) stating ‘The Tombstone of Anjin Miura/William Adams’
14. Tombstone of William Adams, Hirado
15. Statue of William Adams in Hirado town centre
16. Plaque in Hirado, stating: ‘This plaque marks the site of the English Trading House (1613-1623)’
17. Adams’ house in Hirado
18. Site of the English Trading House, Hirado
19. Trade pass (Dutch: handelspas) issued in the name of Tokugawa Ieyasu
20. Monuments at Hemi, Yokosuka, believed to have been erected by Joseph Adams to honour his parents
21. Handwriting of William Adams – from his letter dated December 1613