

6

Preface

14

Urban Transformation in Diverse Inner-city Neighborhoods in Shanghai

Foreword by Kees Christiaanse

17

Chapter 1: Introduction

-
- 22 The Context of the Transition Economy and the Chinese City
 - 30 Conceptual Framework: the Urban Loophole
 - 37 Research Methods
 - 48 Existing Studies on Urban China in Transition
 - 54 Content and Structure

69

Chapter 2: The Residential Neighborhood

-
- 80 Seeds of Housing Marketization, Foreign Investment, and Reconnecting to the World
 - 86 State Institutions, Housing Marketization, and the Gap of Opportunity
 - 90 Expedited Know-How Import and the Dual Market
 - 99 Before the Tower: the Lilong
 - 106 Origins of the Residual Conditions
 - 111 Preservation of Ambiguous Property Rights
 - 118 Demographic Shift and Commercial Spatial Demand
 - 126 Incremental Conversions and Small Creative Entrepreneurs
 - 129 Changing Habitat

143

Chapter 3: The Cultural Street

-
- 150 From First Recognitions of Architectural Heritage to Implementation
 - 162 Setting the Context for Heritage Policy Implementation
 - 170 The Old House and the Club House—Changing Market Supply and Demand
 - 177 Localized Cosmopolitans and the Developing of Le Passage Fuxing and Ferguson Lane
 - 185 Conserving Heritage: Lane 1754 (Aka 1768) and Lane 117
 - 198 The 'Western' District and Learning from the 'Beautification Plan'
 - 206 The World Primary School and Small Entrepreneurs
 - 210 Approximating Globalization and the State's Appropriation

235

Chapter 4: The Midtown of China

-
- 243 The Paragon of Economic Liberalization: Jing'an District and the Development of West Nanjing Lu
 - 254 Evocation of Heritage—Redefining Jing'an Villas
 - 261 Jing'an Villas' Commercialization and Creative Enterprises
 - 272 The Precedent of Tianzifang for Commercialization
 - 281 The Public Relations Wars and the Differing Visions of Jing'an Villas' Future
 - 287 The Neighboring En-Bloc Development of Dazhongli
 - 296 Zhang Gardens: Jing'an Develops Its Heritage Value
 - 313 Gentrification with Chinese Characteristics

335

Chapter 5: The New Economies

-
- 339 Alternative Business Plan for Creative Incubation: Anken Green
 - 350 New Local-Global Alliances: the Upgrade of Yongkang Lu
 - 364 The New Economies

379

Chapter 6: The Contemporary Art Ecologies

-
- 384 From Contestation to Appropriation: the Transformation of M50
 - 394 "Made in China": New Museums and the Business of Art
 - 400 Uncertainty and Regeneration
 - 404 Art and Architecture Catalyze Development
 - 408 Contemporary Art Ecologies

423

Chapter 7: Outlook

-
- 425 Cases from Shanghai and Urban Loopholes
 - 428 Shifts in the Urban Loopholes under Economic Transition
 - 430 The Urban Loopholes as Equilibrators and Learning From the Urban Loophole

435

Acknowledgments

437

About the Author

438

Illustration Credits

441

Index of Persons, Institutions, and Firms