Contents

Foreword from the Editors — V

Special Focus: Symbols of Diaspora
ed. Florian Kläger

Florian Kläger
Introduction: Symbols of Diaspora — 3

Melanie R. Wattenbarger
Tied to the Land: A Semiotic Challenging of Terms Concerning Land as Used in Diaspora Discourse — 19

Špela Drnovšek Zorko
Diasporic Memory and Narratives of Spatiotemporality — 43

Nydia A. Swaby
Amy Ashwood Garvey and the Political Aesthetics of Diasporic Social Spaces in London — 59

Leonie Windt
The Symbolism of Emplacement and Displacement in Sudanese British Fiction by Tayeb Salih and Leila Aboulela — 75

Iulia Rascanu
Ain’t I a Woman? A Mother? A Nation? ‘Woman’ and ‘Nation’ in Pre- and Post-Independence India — 93

Sarah Knor
Christmas in the Diaspora: Dislocating Symbols in Kipling, Cary and Dabydeen — 111

Emma Patchett
Two Stone Lions: Law, Home, and Diasporic Sovereignty — 131
Franziska Quabeck
Oddity Magnified: In Search of Identity in Kazuo Ishiguro’s When We Were Orphans — 149

Holly Morgan
Writing Her Own Story: Acculturation, Metatextuality and Symbolizing Queerness in Shamim Sarif’s I Can’t Think Straight — 163

Marlena Tronicke
‘A Bootless Inquisition?’ Searching for Imaginary Homelands in The Tempest — 183

General Section

Ursula Hennigfeld
Discourses of Terror in French and Spanish Novels after 9/11 — 201

Keith Sandiford
William Earle’s Novella: Obi, Obeah and the Ideological Work of Haunting — 221

Barbara Puschmann-Nalenz
A Great Good Place or Ghastly Pile? Representations of the English Country House in Recent British Fiction: Metamorphosis of a Literary Motif — 245

Book Reviews — 273

Contributors — 285

Index — 291