Acknowledgements

Almost all the chapters included in this volume were delivered in one form or other at an international conference entitled ‘Beyond Duty: Interacting with religious professionals and appropriating tradition in the Imperial Era’ held in Erfurt at the Augustinerkloster, 14–16 January, 2015. The conference was organised as part of the research project Lived Ancient Religion: Questioning ‘cults’ and ‘polis religion’, directed by Jörg Rüpke and Rubina Raja at the Max Weber Center for Advanced Cultural and Social Studies (University of Erfurt), and has been generously funded by the European Research Council (Seventh Framework programme [FP7/2013], grant agreement no. 295555).

We would like to express our warm thanks to the support staff of the Max Weber Center (Max-Weber-Kolleg), in particular Ursula Birtel-Koltes and Doreen Hochberg, whose assistance in the organisation of the event was invaluable. We are also grateful to five of the original participants, Francesco Camia, Françoise Van Haeperen, Paraskevi Martzavou, Ivana and Andrej Petrovic, for their oral contributions, although their papers are not included here.

The editorial board of Religionsgeschichtliche Versuche und Vorarbeiten has kindly agreed to include this volume in the series, while the de Gruyter editorial team has, as always, been extremely supportive during the production of the volume. Finally, we would like to thank Nannette Würbach for her assistance with the formatting of this volume.

Richard L. Gordon
Georgia Petridou
Jörg Rüpke