Preface — IX

- 1 Overview: Attribution, Structure, and the Five Forms of Composition — 1
 - 1.1 The Overarching Thesis: Ubiquity of Structure and Ontic Primacy of Attribution — 1
 - 1.2 Previewing Attributes as Structuring Intensioned-Combinators — 28
 - 1.3 Intension Universals and the Five Types of Unification — 34
 - 1.4 On the Emergence of Attributes and Wholes — 44
 - 1.5 On the Fictive Nature of Unifier-less Wholes: Formalized Sums and Sets — 53
 - 1.6 The Proposed Holism via Attribute Instances as the ‘Primary Beings’ — 66

- 2 Instance vs. Classic Ontology: Individuation and Adherence — 72
 - 2.1 Classic Aristotelian/Common-Sense Assumptions — 72
 - 2.2 The Classic Assumptions in Aristotle’s Metaphysics — 76
 - 2.3 The Dependence Contradiction and Individuation Regress — 93
 - 2.4 The Alternative of Absolutely Bare Particulars and Their Incoherence — 97
 - 2.5 The Alternative of Near-Bare Particulars and Their Error — 109
 - 2.6 The Specious Inherence Model of Attribution and Property-Reduction of Relations — 112

- 3 Instance vs. Classic Ontology: Intensions and Unification — 126
 - 3.1 Further Problems Via the Classic Assumptions, E.g., Bradley’s Regress — 126
 - 3.2 Implying the Alternatives of Relation Elimination or Substance Monism — 130
 - 3.3 Denying Attribute Dependence: Bundle Theories — 137
 - 3.4 Hume and the Denial of the ‘Inseparability’ of Attributes — 143

- 4 Atomic Structures: Facts and Their Natures — 167
 - 4.1 Structural Unity via Attribution; Facts as Atomic Structures — 167
 - 4.2 On Intensions and Their Prescribed Foundations — 173
 - 4.3 Assaying Attributes as Intensioned Combinators — 187

VIII — Contents

4.4	The Individuation of Attributes —	200
4.5	Attribute Intensions as Universals —	206
4.6	The Simple ‘Continuous Composition’ of Attribute Instances —	220
4.7	Summary —	228
5	Complex Structures and Ontic Atoms —	231
5.1	Complex Structures by Inter-Attribute and Emergent Composition —	231
5.2	Attribute Instances as ‘Primary Beings’ —	241
5.3	The Identity and Indiscernibility of Structured Entities —	250
5.4	Answering the Problem of Composition —	257
5.5	Some Implications: On Dispositions, Causation, and Change —	266
5.6	Conclusion: The Route to Realist Instance Structuralism —	279
