List of Images

Abbreviations
GFHA Ghetto Fighters House Archives, Lochamei Hageta’ot, Israel
JHM Joods Historisch Museum, Amsterdam, the Netherlands
MS Mémorial de la Shoah, Paris, France
Priv. Coll. Private Collection

Fig. 1 Palestine pioneers of the hachshara kibbutz of Lutsk in former Poland (now the Ukraine) in October 1934, with the first cow that they earned themselves (GFHA, no. 3629). — 11

Fig. 2 A group of Palestine pioneers being trained in Den Bosch shortly after the First World War (JHM, no. F301856). — 17

Fig. 3 The roll call of the members of the Werkdorp Wieringermeer when the Germans removed most of them on 21 March 1941 (GFHA, no. 41284). — 24

Fig. 4 Mirjam Waterman in 1943 (Priv. Coll.). — 31

Fig. 5 Wil and Joop Westerweel with two of their children in the 1930s (GFHA, no. 13749). — 44

Fig. 6 ‘Workers’ and ‘helpers’ of the Werkplaats in Bilthoven (ca. 1935). Kees Boeke at the top, in the middle, with Joop Westerweel to his left, in a dark suit. Philip Rümke is sitting three rows below Kees with his left arm on his knee. To the right of the flag we see Betty Boeke. Her daughter Candia, with a white collar is sitting in a row below her (GFHA, no. 33654). — 52

Fig. 7 Bouke Koning at the beginning of the 1940s (GFHA, no. 13733). — 66

Fig. 8 Jan Smit (GFHA, no. 62547). — 70

Fig. 9 The Loosdrecht pioneers in spring 1942. Paul Sonnenberg fourth row far left, the Nussbaum sisters third row centre right. Manfred Paul with chequered shirt, third row left. Arthur Heinrich with chequered shirt, first row centre. His brother Josef with spectacles, rear row centre. Metta Lande, second row, far left. The Turteltaub brothers, second row centre, right and next to them Manfred Rübner with spectacles (GFHA, no. 13691). — 73

Fig. 10 Kurt Hannemann (JHM, no. F000358). — 88

Fig. 11 Antje Roos (left) with an unknown girlfriend in the Beth Chaloets (1942) (GFHA, no. 13600). — 95

Fig. 12 Frans and Henny Gerritsen with their daughter Mieke. The photograph was made some years after the war (Priv. Coll.). — 98

Fig. 13 The hachshara pioneers in Elden in the summer of 1942. Leader Werner Ahlfeld is standing on the far right (GFHA, no. 13606). — 103

Fig. 14 A small group of the Gouda pioneers on one of the flat bottom boats (JHM, no. F008010). — 107

Fig. 15 Eight pioneers of the Deventer Vereniging in Assen in February 1942. Several pioneers worked there temporarily in a paper factory. Max Windmüller can be seen on the far left, Kurt Hanneman is the fourth from the left, and Schraga Engel is far right (GFHA, no. 28578). — 112

Fig. 16 Shushu Simon (JHM, no. F000357). — 121

https://doi.org/10.1515/9783110582703-001
Fig. 17  Willy Gerler shown here during his hachshara training in Loosdrecht. He was one of the first pioneers who reached Spain at the beginning of 1943 (GFHA, no. 59387). — 128

Fig. 18  Kurt Reilinger took over the leadership of the escape network in France from Shushu Simon in August 1943 (GFHA, no. 41266). — 130

Fig. 19  Chiel Salomé took pioneers and other Jews who wanted to hide to Limburg and Frisia (GFHA, no. 13728). — 136

Fig. 20  Max (Cor) Windmüller (right), here with fellow pioneer Harald Simon, accompanied pioneers from Brussels through France. Max died shortly before the liberation on one of the death marches from concentration camps. Harald Simon, who was arrested in Rotterdam in 1943, was murdered in Auschwitz (GFHA, no. 13672). — 149

Fig. 21  The hachshara group, guarded by several MP’s at work in the field outside the Westerbork camp (GFHA, no. 10169). — 162

Fig. 22  Kurt Walter, shown here on his locomotive, was the main organizer of the escapes from Westerbork (GFHA, no. 33656). — 174

Fig. 23  Lore Durlacher cared for pioneers in hiding and was involved in many escapes from Westerbork. The photograph is from 1942 (Priv. Coll.). — 180

Fig. 24  Letty Rudelsheim, sitting far right, was the manager of the safe house in Rotterdam. The photograph was taken during a meeting of pioneers in Deventer at the beginning of the war (GFHA, no. 13608). — 191

Fig. 25  Menachem Pinkhof around 1940 (Priv. Coll.). — 207

Fig. 26  Members of the Armée Juive, with Avraham Polonski in the centre, in a post-war meeting with the Israeli Prime Minister David Ben-Gurion, to his right (GFHA, no. 13090). — 219

Fig. 27  A maquis unit of the Armée Juive in the department of Tarn in 1944 (MS, no. MLX A11). — 224

Fig. 28  Willy Hirsch, the organizer of the escape routes in Belgium and France, died in Bergen-Belsen, in 1945 (GFHA, no. 13716). — 231

Fig. 29  In 1964, Wil Westerweel received the Yad Vashem award as ‘Righteous among the nations’ from Gideon Hausner, the prosecutor in the Eichmann trial and chairman of the board of Yad Vashem (GFHA, no. 41271). — 246

Fig. 30  A group of Palestine pioneers in Barcelona in 1944. The group left Barcelona to go to Cadiz, from where they went to Palestine on the ship Guine. The little boy in the front row is Uri Durlacher (Priv. Coll.). — 256

Map 1  The Westerweel group: hachshara training, important hiding centres, escape routes. © Peter Palm, Berlin. — 85

Map 2  The Palestine pioneers in France: escape routes, maquis, OT worksites. © Peter Palm, Berlin. — 216