Table of Contents

Abbreviations of Schleiermacher’s Collected Works — VII

Editors’ Introduction — 1

Part I: Friendship and Interpersonal Subjectivity

Graham Ward
Schleiermacher and the Theology of Friendship — 11

Arnulf von Scheliha
The Development of Individuality: Some Considerations on the Importance of Friendship in Schleiermacher’s Social Theory — 25

Cornelia Richter
Symphilosophieren and We-Intentionality Despite All Misunderstandings — 39

Jonas Lundblad
Polyphonic Love: A Common Theme in Schleiermacher and Bonhoeffer — 51

Matthew Ryan Robinson
Can Friendship be Taught and Learned? — 75

Part II Sociability, Culture, and Lived Religion

Dietrich Korsch
The Spirit of Friendship: Thoughts on Subjectivity and Friendship from Friedrich Schleiermacher — 91

Wilhelm Gräb
Individuality and Sociability in Schleiermacher’s Concept of the Christian Church — 105
Table of Contents

Johann Meylahn
Lived Religion and Populist Reason in an Age of Populist Politics — 119

Nadia Marais
Contaminated by Grace? Salvation, Sociability, and the Church as Collective Life — 129

Andrew Dole
Thinking with Schleiermacher about Religious Polarization — 145

Contributors — 163

Index — 165