Acknowledgments

We wish to acknowledge the financial support of the Department of Humanities at Ca' Foscari University of Venice, which has funded both the conference in honour of Albio Cesare Cassio (Venice, 28th April 2017) and the language revision of this volume. For the latter, we thank Katharine Shields for her precious assistance.

Ever since the idea of celebrating Albio's career materialized in late 2016, Paola Ascheri has been an enthusiastic supporter and secret ally throughout. She has been especially invaluable for the production of the Bibliography of Albio's works, for which we are very grateful to her.

We wish to thank all the contributors for having accepted our invitation to celebrate Albio, and particularly Lucia Prauscello and Andreas Willi for their support at several stages of this enterprise. We are also indebted to Coulter George for his advice, to Margherita Bellocchi, Caterina Carpinato, Ettore Cingano and Filippomaria Pontani for chairing the conference sessions, as well as to all of those among Albio's friends and pupils who came to Venice and made the conference an unforgettable event for him.

Finally, we are grateful to Franco Montanari for suggesting that we publish this Festschrift in the Trends in Classics Supplementary Volumes, and to Antonios Rengakos for accepting it in the series.

Festschriften are often difficult volumes to produce and bring to completion. If this one has turned into a rewarding experience on many levels it is because of the profound friendship between the two editors. For this, too, we are deeply in debt of Albio Cassio.
