

Contents

List of Charts and Tables — IX

Abbreviations — XI

Preface — XIII

Introduction — 1

- 1 “For Europe Whole and Free” – ACEN Within the Organizational Framework — 21
  - 1.1 Assembly of Captive European Nations — 22
  - 1.2 The Free Europe Committee — 51
  - 1.3 American Friends of Captive Nations — 86

- 2 “Voice of the Silenced Peoples” – ACEN and the Council of Europe — 101
  - 2.1 ACEN Sessions in France at Strasbourg — 105
  - 2.2 Cacophony — 113

- 3 “Free Elections and Withdrawal of Soviet Troops” – ACEN and the Communist Regimes — 123
  - 3.1 ACEN Reaches Out to the UN — 126
  - 3.2 American Support for ACEN’s Agenda — 133
  - 3.3 Poznań Trials — 137

- 4 The “Little U.N.” – ACEN and the United Nations — 149
  - 4.1 ACEN’s Action in the UN during the Hungarian Revolution — 151
  - 4.2 “The free world made a major error” — 167
  - 4.3 “Hungary Under Soviet Rule” — 171
  - 4.4 “Soviet Colonialism” — 178

- 5 “Captive Nations” – ACEN and the U.S. Congress — 189
  - 5.1 ACEN on the Floor of Congress — 191
  - 5.2 Captive Nations Week — 201

- 6 “Asian People’s Freedom Day” – ACEN and the APAFL — 211
  - 6.1 ACEN and APAFL — 220

VI — Contents

6.2 Freedom Day — 228

7 “Naciones Cautivas Europeas” – ACEN in Latin America — 241

7.1 Between Hungary and Cuba (1956–1959) — 246

7.2 After Cuba, before the Dominican Republic (1960–1965) — 263

7.3 Divergence — 281

8 “We can only buy their time ...” – Free Europe Committee and ACEN — 291

8.1 From Partnership to “Exile Front” — 296

8.2 ACEN’s Choices versus “Vis Maior” — 303

9 Conclusion, or what was ACEN? — 321

10 Epilogue — 331

Appendices — 343

ACEN Charter and Rules of Procedure (as of 1958) — 343

ACEN Delegates (1954–1971) — 358

ACEN Publications (1954–1971) — 417

Bibliography — 421

Archives — 421

Online Archives — 422

Literature, Including Memoirs — 424

Subject Index — 431

For Marcjanna and Jakub

