

Contents

Annette Haug and Ulrich Müller

1 Introduction

Urban Water — 1

Patric-Alexander Kreuz

2 From Nature to Topography

Water in the Cities of Roman Northern Italy — 13

Nicolas Lamare

3 Fountains and the Ancient City

Social Interactions, Practical Uses, and Pleasant Sights — 31

Nicola Chiarenza

4 Water, Social Space and Architecture at Selinous: the Case of the Urban Sanctuary — 51

Philipp Kobusch

5 Fountains and Basins in Greek Sanctuaries

On the Relationship Between Ritual Performance and Architecture — 69

Christiane Zimmermann

6 Water in Early Christian Ritual: Baptism and Baptisteries in Corinth — 85

Dylan K. Rogers

7 Aquatic Pasts & the Watery Present: Water and Memory in the Fora of Rome — 105

Adam Rogers

8 Water and Decentering Urbanism in the Roman Period: Urban Materiality, Post-Humanism and Identity — 123

Margit Dahm-Kruse

9 Water and Urban Structures in the Narrative Worlds of Courtly Novels – Aesthetic and Symbolic Functions — 143

Sophie Bouffier

10 Syracusan Water Networks in Antiquity — 157

Elisabeth Gruber

11 Meeting Water Needs as a Major Challenge in an Urban Context

Examples from the Danube Region (1300–1600) — 179

Christian Rohr

12 Ice Jams and their Impact on Urban Communities from a Long-term Perspective (Middle Ages to the 19th Century) — 197

Betty Arndt

13 Medieval and Post-Medieval Urban Water Supply and Sanitation

Archaeological Evidence from Göttingen and North German Towns — 213

Ulrich Müller

14 Harbourscapes

Three Examples from Early to High Medieval Northern Europe — 229

Rainer Schreg

15 Human Impact on Hydrology

Direct and Indirect Consequences of Medieval Urbanisation in Southern Germany — 249

Gabriel Zeilinger

16 Water as an Economic Resource and as an Environmental Challenge Within the Urbanisation Process of the Rhine Valley in the 13th Century — 265

List of Contributors — 271