Contents

Preface ........................................... VII

I. Introduction: Egyptian Art in Rome as Art .......... 1
   1. Why “Egyptianizing”? .............................. 8
   2. The Limits of Iconography .......................... 15
   3. Hellenism and Other Inherited Mistakes .......... 17
   4. Egypt Three Ways ................................. 20
      a. Believing in Religion .......................... 20
      b. Fashionable for Centuries ................... 22
      c. Politics at the Dinner Table .................. 23
   5. New Direction ................................... 25

II. The Lure of Egyptian Treasures ..................... 29
   1. The Upper Cubiculum Shows off its Riches ........ 33
   2. How Art Collections Become Frescoes ............ 42
   3. Fantastic Transformations ........................ 53
   4. Pharaoh's Crown as Women's Jewelry .............. 59
   5. Egyptian Gods as Lamp Stands ................... 65

III. Triumphant Splendor ............................. 79
   1. Drinking the Sweet Poison ....................... 83
   2. Egypt in Egyed .................................. 86
   3. Vessels in Frescoes .............................. 89
   4. Vessels in Triumph ............................... 95
   5. Turn for Home .................................. 99
   6. Enter Octavian .................................. 102
   7. Tables for Kings and Collectors ................ 107
   8. Another Egyptian mensa ......................... 113
IV. Trading in Luxury

1. Shipping between Campania and Alexandria 121
2. Ready Money 128
3. Textiles in Italian Homes 131
4. A Cloth over One's Head 139
5. Triangle Borders on Egyptian Textiles 144
6. Safe Passage to India 150
7. Where is East? 155

V. Sculptures for Cult and Collecting

1. Corinthian Statuettes 161
2. Collecting Diverse Styles 167
3. Art and Divinity in Gardens 174
4. The Pleasures of Herculaneum's Palaestra 179
5. Invisible Isea 184

VI. Conclusion: Why Egypt?

Summary 196
Notes 201
List of Figure Sources 223
Works Cited 229
Index 259