Contents

Introduction —— 1

I  Analyses Concerning the Relationships between the Book of Isaiah and Books Associated with Pre-exilic Prophets

Franz Sedlmeier
Hosea and Isaiah: Aspects of Convergence and Difference —— 9

Uwe Becker
Sozialkritik in Jes 1–39 und im Amos-Buch —— 33

James Nogalski
The Role of Lady Zion in the Concluding Section of Zephaniah and Isaiah 40–66 —— 55

II  Analyses Concerning the Relationships between Later Layers of Isaiah and Later Layers of the Book of the Twelve

Burkard M. Zapff
Second Isaiah and the Twelve —— 77

Richard J. Bautch
Isaiah 10 as an Intertext that Informs a Unified Reading of Zechariah 11 (Zech 11:1–3 and 11:4–17) —— 97

J. Todd Hibbard
Zechariah 14 and the final section of Isaiah —— 117

Christopher B. Hays
Isa 24–27 and Zephaniah Amid the Terrors and Hopes of the Seventh Century: An Intertextual Analysis —— 131
III  Thematic Threads in the Book of Isaiah and the Book of the Twelve

Joachim Eck

The Song of the Unfruitful Vineyard
(Isa 5:1–7): Its Position in the Book of Isaiah and Its Reception in Late Layers of Isaiah and the Twelve —— 159

Carol J. Dempsey, OP

Divine and Human Kingships in the Books of Isaiah and the Twelve: A Kaleidoscope of Conflicting Yet Unifying Images —— 185

Archibald L. H. M. van Wieringen

The Oracles Against the Nations in Isaiah, Amos and Zephaniah. A Text-Immanent Reader’s Perspective —— 205

Hugh G. M. Williamson

The Day of the Lord in the Book of Isaiah and the Book of the Twelve —— 223

IV  Festvortrag: Exegesis of the Prophets from the Perspective of Systematic Theology

Rudolf Voderholzer

Welche Exegese braucht die Kirche? —— 245

V  Synthesis

Joachim Eck

Converging and Diverging Lines in the Relationships between Isaiah and the Twelve —— 267

List of Contributors —— 277

Index —— 279