This volume emerged from a conference strand at the International Medieval Congress at the University of Leeds in 2019. In the intervening years it has expanded and evolved substantially with the support of all the contributors, reviewers, and numerous friends and colleagues. It’s been a long haul and I need to thank a number of people in particular:

Rabea, Ulla, Jana at DeGruyter for their organisational and editorial work and patience.

Phillipe and Michaël at Polymorph Games for creating and authorising our bespoke cover image.

Karen Cook for their swift and thorough compilation of the index.

And most of all, my wife Varan for her endless cheer and championing.
