List of Figures

Figure 1  Carus to Peirce 2 July 1890, on OCP Stationery A. Invitation to contribute to The Monist. — 22
Figure 2  Carus to Peirce 27 April 1892, on OCP Stationery B. Invitation to help with Mach translation. — 40
Figure 3  Peirce to Carus early Nov 1896, first two pages. Explanation of Peirce's logical characters, with illustrations. See also Figure 8, Peirce to McCormack 2 Sept 1896. — 118
Figure 4  Carus to Peirce 29 March 1897, on OCP Stationery C, first page. Misunderstanding with Peirce's “On Logical Graphs” MS. — 131
Figure 5  Carus to Peirce 30 April 1910, on OCP Stationery D. Eager request for Peirce's much-delayed “Illustrations” revisions. — 227
Figure 6  Hegeler to Peirce 16 March 1893, first page. The “misdirected letter” acknowledged by Peirce 9 April 1893 and which resulted in a miscommunication between the two regarding the fate of Peirce’s “Quest for a Method.” — 279
Figure 7  Peirce's rendering of illegible postmark. — 295
Figure 8  Peirce to McCormack 2 Sept 1896, 3 pages. Explanation of Peirce's logical characters, with illustrations. — 334
Figure 9  July 1890, first page. Invitation to contribute to The Monist. — 381
Figure 10  Peirce to Russell ca. 4 Oct 1896. Death note. — 500
Figure 11  Peirce to Russell 10 July 1908, page of omitted set 1. Existential graphs of co-identity. — 532
Figure 12  The “scribbled on” final sheet of Peirce to Russell 5 June 1909, referenced in postscript. — 584
Figure 13  Outline of Peirce's proposed “A Quest for a Method” book (or “Search for a Method”), 2 pages, late Jan–early Feb 1893. — 601
Figure 14  Advertisement by Henry Holt & Co. for Peirce’s proposed 12-volume “The Principles of Philosophy,” 2-sided quarto brochure, ca. fall 1894. — 613

https://doi.org/10.1515/9783110768756-201