Contents

Chapter 1
Viral Lobbying and the Influence Production Process — 1
- Why ‘Viral Lobbying’? — 2
- The Spread of COVID-19 as a Focussing Event — 3
- The Influence Production Process — 5
- Structure of the Book — 9
- References — 9

Chapter 2
The InterCov Project — 13
- Background — 15
  - The COVID-19 Pandemic in Eight European Polities — 15
  - Identifying Interest Groups — 18
- Structure of the Surveys and Data — 20
  - Question Overview — 21
  - Interest Group Type — 22
  - Lobbying Resources — 24
  - Affectedness by the Pandemic — 26
- Chapter Summary — 30
- References — 31

Chapter 3
Issue Mobilisation — 34
- Drivers of Issue Mobilisation in Times of Crisis — 36
  - Explanations Based on Mobilisation Theories — 37
  - Alternative Explanations Based on Internal Organisational Pressures — 40
- Analysis: Issue Mobilisation during the Pandemic — 42
  - Overview of Mobilisation Patterns — 42
  - Explanatory Models of Issue Mobilisation — 45
- Chapter Summary — 50
- References — 51

Chapter 4
Strategy Selection — 54
- The ‘Logic of Influence’ and ‘Logic of Survival’ in Strategy Choice — 56
  - Inside and Outside Strategies to Secure Policy Influence — 57
The Selection of Influence Strategies during the Pandemic — 58
Strategies to Secure Organisational Survival — 63
Mortality Anxiety and Survival Strategies during the Pandemic — 64
Analysis: Lobbying Strategies for Policy Influence and Survival during the Pandemic — 66
Explanatory Models of Strategies for Policy Influence — 66
Explanatory Models of Strategies for Organisational Survival — 72
Chapter Summary — 76
References — 77

Chapter 5
Access to Gatekeepers — 82
Lobbying Access after a Focusing Event — 84
‘Pessimistic’ Accounts of Biases in Political Access after a Focussing Event — 85
‘Optimistic’ Accounts of Inclusive Political Access after a Focussing Event — 87
Analysis: Lobbying Access during the Pandemic — 89
Overview of Access Patterns — 90
Explanatory Models of Access — 93
Overview of Gatekeeper Demand for Interest Group Input — 97
Explanatory Models of Gatekeeper Demand for Interest Group Input — 99
Chapter Summary — 103
References — 105

Chapter 6
Lobbying Influence — 109
Impact, Preference Attainment and Policy Satisfaction — 111
‘Optimistic’ Accounts of Affectedness as a Determinant of Influence — 114
‘Pessimistic’ Accounts of Resources and Group Type as Determinants of Influence — 115
Analysis: Lobbying Influence during the Pandemic — 118
Overview of Three Proxies for Interest Group Influence — 118
Explanatory Models of Lobbying Influence — 120
Chapter Summary — 125
References — 127
Chapter 7
Interest Groups’ Experiences with Lobbying during the Pandemic —— 131
Focus Groups as Opportunities for Sharing Experiences —— 133
Resources and Viral Lobbying —— 134
  Resources and Information Provision —— 134
  Resources and Insiderness —— 135
  New Resource Provision during the Pandemic —— 137
Affectedness and Viral Lobbying —— 138
  Affectedness and Information —— 138
  Affectedness and Cascades of Attention —— 139
  Affectedness, Issue-Linkage and Framing —— 140
Solidarity, Appropriateness and Viral Lobbying —— 141
Chapter Summary —— 142
References —— 143

Chapter 8
Trends and Biases in Viral Lobbying and their Implications —— 145
Evidence for ‘Pessimistic’ Views of Viral Lobbying —— 147
Evidence for ‘Optimistic’ Views of Viral Lobbying —— 148
Implications beyond the Pandemic —— 151
  Policy Implications of our Findings —— 152
  Implications of Context Conditions —— 153
Innovations and Avenues for Future Research —— 154
  Novel Measures of Lobbying Outcomes —— 155
  Future Research Directions based on our Findings —— 156
References —— 158