Acknowledgements

In the course of researching and writing this work we always found friends and colleagues who supported us in finding the right resources and to gain understanding of difficult passages. They were happy to challenge us and with special wit they challenged our interpretations. They generously offered their viewpoints as supporting vehicles for this work.

Professor Kenneth P. Kramer is a unique person who was always ready to listen and to offer other views. His rich knowledge served as a special ray of light.

We deeply appreciate the assistance of our friend and colleague, Professor Olga Meerson for her willingness to share her wisdom and knowledge with us. She was always ready to share her ideas and understanding in the most complicated matters we faced.

Elizabeth (Talbott) Santos’ editorial work made this work readable. She knew how to unbind long, complicated sentences.

Our colleagues at the George and Helen Ladd Library, Thomas Hayward, LaVerne Winn, Sandra Grodeau, Jane Boyle, Julie Retelle, Perrin Lumbert, Laura Juraska, Susan McArthur, and Christopher Schiff provided unconditional assistance while conducting our research.

We extend our deepest appreciation to the Dimmer-Bergstorm Fund for their generous grant supporting this study.

While writing the final draft of this work our friend and mentor, John P. Dimmer, died. With his death we lost a dear friend and a great human being. This work is dedicated to his memory.

Mishael M. Caspi / Gerda Neu-Sokol
Bates College, 2005