Table of Contents

Introduction.................................................................................................................................7

Imperial and Colonial Modernities

SIA ANAGNOSTOPOULOU
Millet, Ethnicity, Colonial Community. Views of the Authoritarian Transition to Modernity, 19th–early 20th c.
From the Ottoman to the British Empire.....................................................................................14

VANGELIS KECHRIOITIS
Post-Colonial Criticism and Muslim-Christian Relations in the (very) Late Ottoman Empire: The Case of Smyrna/Izmir.........................................................70

CHRISTOS HADJIIOSSIF
Ottoman Reforms and Colonial Policies...................................................................................90

MICHALIS N. MICHAEL
From the Ottoman Meclis-i İdare to the British Legislative Council: Representative Administration between the Ottoman and the British Perception of Modernity.................................105

MÉROPI ANASTASSIADOU
Non-Muslim Communities and State Control in the Late Ottoman Empire. Administrative Practice and Decision-making within the Greek Orthodox Parishes of Istanbul .....................................................131

Religious Communities, Secular Ideologies and Actors

ANDREKOS VARNAVA
Cypriots Transforming their Identity during the Early British Period. From a Class, Religious and Regional Identity to a Hellenic Ethno-Nationalist Identity ................................................................................148

NIYAZI KIZILYÜREK
Modernity, Nationalism and Secularization: The Turkish Cypriot Case ...............................173

RINA COHEN MULLER
Christians and Jews in the French Strategy for Ottoman Palestine ..................................182

JÉRÔME BOCQUET
Missionary Presence, Diplomatic Rivalries and Proselytizing among the Ottoman Empire’s Religious Communities:
The Case of 19th Century Ottoman Syria ..............................................................................213
Religious Community, Education and Statehood

CHANTAL VERDEIL
New Missions, New Education? Transformation of Education during the First Half of the 19th Century in Ottoman Syria ............................230

THEOHARIS STAVRIDES
The Organization and Development of Greek Orthodox Education in Cyprus, 1830–1878 .................................................................246

ANDREAS LYBERATOS
School, Community, State:
Financing Christian Orthodox Education in Late Ottoman and Autonomous Bulgaria (19th–early 20th c.) .....................261

Comprehensive Bibliography...................................................................................280
List of Authors.............................................................................................................310
Index ..............................................................................................................................315