TABLE OF CONTENTS

INTRODUCTION ......................................................... 1

CHAPTER 1: BACKGROUND ........................................... 8

The Tulunids. The Ikhshidids. The Hamdanids. The Fatimids.
The Mirdasids. The Saljuqs.

CHAPTER 2: AGRICULTURE ......................................... 26

Crops. New Crops. The Limits of the Cultivated Area. Animal Husbandry. The Influence of the Political Authorities on Agriculture. Conclusion.

CHAPTER 3: CRAFTS AND INDUSTRY ............................... 54

Raw Materials and Mining. Crafts. Some Important Crafts and New Industries: Glass, Textiles, Sugar, Paper, Shipbuilding,
Soap, Wine, Rose Water. Mechanical Devices: Mills, Waterwheels, Press. Conclusion.

CHAPTER 4: TRANSPORTATION AND COMMUNICATION .......... 80

The Main Highways in Syria. The Main Highways which connected Syria with its Neighboring Countries. Sea Routes. Land Highways or Sea Routes. Communication and Mail Service. Means of Transportation. The Political Authorities and Transportation.
Conclusion.

CHAPTER 5: TRADE ....................................................... 109

Some Important Factors Related to Trade: Strategic Location and Holiness, The Representative of the Merchants, Banking. Politics and Trade. Customs. The Exported Commodities. The Imported Commodities. Trade Centers. An Estimate of the Value of the Exported and Imported Goods.

CHAPTER 6: THE GENERAL ECONOMIC SITUATION AND STANDARD OF LIVING ... 145

in Ramlah, Hims, and in the Area Adjacent to the Desert. Economic Improvement in Many Areas. Standard of Living. Summary and Conclusions.

APPENDIX 1: WARS, KILLING AND DESTRUCTION ............... 183

APPENDIX 2: CROPS IN MEDIEVAL SYRIA .......................... 207

APPENDIX 3: THE MAIN OVERLAND ROUTES IN SYRIA ............. 212

APPENDIX 4: WEIGHTS AND MEASURES ............................. 227

APPENDIX 5: SYRIAN REVENUES .................................... 233